Petitioner Counsel :- Keshav Kumar Dwivedi

Respondent Counsel :- Govt Advocate

Hon'ble Vinod Prasad,J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicants and learned A.G.A.

The dispute seems to be between husband and wife. Having gone through the record, I prima facie find that the parties should be given a chance to settle their differences on their own terms through the process of mediation and conciliation.

Let this order be placed before the Registrar/Incharge of 'Allahabad High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre'. The Registrar/Incharge of the Mediation Centre will issue notices to both the parties fixing a date for their personal appearances at the centre before the mediator nominated by the Organizing Secretary of the Mediation Centre. Mediator/Conciliator is allowed three month's time to find a possible solution of disputes between the parties.

The case will be listed before the appropriate Bench in the week commencing 4.10.2010 along with the report of conciliator. The applicants are directed to deposit Rs. 10,000/- at the Mediation Centre within one week for the expenses to be borne by respondent no. 2 and he will also take steps to serve respondent no. 2 through registered post within three days from today.

The applicants undertakes to appear at the Mediation Centre on every date fixed for mediation.

Meanwhile, further proceedings of Complaint Case No.2366 of 2009, Laxmi Devi Vs. Jagdish and others, under Sections 406, 323, 452, 504, 506 IPC, P.S. Jagdishpura, District Agra, pending in the court of Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, court no.12, Agra shall remain stayed. In case of default in deposit of Rs. 10,000/- or to appear before the Mediation Centre on the date fixed, whichever is earlier the stay order shall stand automatically vacated.

The report of the Mediation Centre will include a note about the deposit of Rs.10.000/- and appearances of the applicants on the date fixed at the Mediation Centre.

Order Date :- 29.6.2010 RK
